Contents

This list supersedes the list issued in August 2008. The four Inn Libraries are open to any barrister. The Library, Royal Courts of Justice is only open to the judiciary, but barristers should apply to their Inn library who may be able to obtain a copy of material not held at any of the four Inns. The list covers all law reports and periodicals (including the daily newspapers) currently received by one or more of the five libraries. Also included are some reports that have ceased publication or been cancelled since 1997. However, older reports and periodicals that are no longer taken or that have ceased publication are not included. Digests and indexes of cases otherwise reported are not included, nor are monographic series and legislation.

The list only includes those law reports and periodicals held by the libraries in print format. All the libraries also have access to numerous electronic serials, most notably through subscriptions to LexisNexis Butterworths (the UK version) and Westlaw UK. In addition, Lincoln's Inn and Middle Temple have subscriptions to HeinOnline, which has back runs of a large number of academic journals, mainly American law reviews but also English, Commonwealth and international titles.

The list is arranged alphabetically by title. Where there has been a change of title, entry is by latest title. Holdings are complete where the Library abbreviation stands alone.

Further bibliographical details of items in this list and holdings of materials outside the scope of this list may be found on the four Inns' catalogues, which are available at www.graysinnlibrary.org.uk, www.innertemplelibrary.org/external, www.lincolnsinnlibrary.org.uk and www.middletemplelibrary.org.uk.

Material not held at any of the libraries

The largest law library in London with extensive foreign holdings is at the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies. All the Inn libraries are able to obtain copies of materials on behalf of barristers from the Institute (otherwise, unless chambers are subscribers in their own right, personal visits may only be made on buying a day ticket). The Institute's catalogue is available via their website www.ials.sas.ac.uk.

Sweet & Maxwell's DocDel service, based at their Yorkshire office (tel: 01422 888000), can provide copies of articles from journals published by many UK publishers.
