* Lincoln's Inn also holds an incomplete run of Standing Committee Debates for the sessions 1954/55-1971/72. For sessions 1967/68 - 1982/83 special arrangements can be made, via Lincoln's Inn only, for barristers to access the set at the Law Society. Westminster Reference Library and Guildhall Library are the nearest public libraries with lengthy runs. Ask at the Enquiry Point for further details.

Location of Inner Temple holdings

Most Parliamentary material is shelved on the Gallery level, Debates on the south (window) side and on the north side (bay 436 onwards), and Command Papers, Bills etc. on the north side (bay 442 onwards). The main exceptions are the earliest Debates (before 1892), the Journals and the first twenty years of Papers and Bills, which are stored in the Littleton Building.
